(Paragraphs 1 through 33 inclusive)
Effective April 3, 2020

1. DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply unless otherwise specifically stated:

- (a) "DSSA's Procurement Representative" means the DSSA official who is authorized to act on behalf of DSSA. Unless otherwise expressly set forth in this Order, DSSA's Procurement Representative is the person who signs this Order on behalf of DSSA.
- (b) "Seller" means the legal entity contracting with DSSA.
- (c) "This Order" means this contractual instrument, including all changes and modifications thereto.
- (d) "MPA" means Master Purchase Agreement.

2. CONTRACT

This Order is a contract. Unless this Order has been placed under an MPA, the provisions of this Order constitute the complete and exclusive agreement between the parties and supersede all previous communications, representations, or agreements, whether oral or written, between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. No agreement or understanding varying or extending the terms or conditions of this Order will be binding on DSSA unless in writing, signed by DSSA's Procurement Representative. Seller will be deemed to have accepted this Order by whichever of the following occurs first, unless the method of acceptance is expressly provided for elsewhere in this Order:

- (a) Seller's written acknowledgment that it accepts the terms and conditions of this Order; or
 - (b) commencement of performance by Seller; or
 - (c) delivery in whole or in part of the supplies called for hereunder.
- Seller may not accept this Order through an acknowledgment that contains terms and conditions that are inconsistent with the terms and conditions in this Order and no condition stated by Seller in its acknowledgment of this Order shall be binding upon DSSA if it conflicts with or is inconsistent with any of the provisions or terms and conditions of this Order. In the event this Order has been placed under an MPA, the terms of the MPA apply.

3. ORDER OF PRECEDENCE

Conflicting provisions hereof, if any, shall prevail in the following descending order of precedence: (1) typed provisions on the face of this Order; (2) attachments to this Order; (3) the printed portion of this Order, including these terms and conditions; and (4) specifications and other documents, other than these terms and conditions, attached or incorporated by reference. DSSA's specification, however incorporated, shall prevail over any subsidiary documents or exhibits referenced therein. Seller shall not use any specification(s) in lieu of those incorporated in this Order without the written consent of DSSA's Procurement Representative. If this Order has been placed under an MPA, the terms of the MPA shall take precedence over the printed terms of this Order.

4. CHANGES

- (a) DSSA may at any time, by prior written notice and without notice to sureties or assignees, make changes within the scope of this Order in any one or more of the following: (i) drawings, designs or specifications; (ii) method of shipping or packing; (iii) place of inspection, acceptance or point of delivery; (iv) delivery schedule; and (v) the Terms and Conditions hereof.

- (b) If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of or the time required for, performance of any part of this Order, DSSA shall make an equitable adjustment in the Order price and/or delivery schedule, and modify the Order accordingly. Changes to the delivery schedule will be subject to a price adjustment only.

- (c) Any claim for an equitable adjustment by Seller must be submitted in writing to DSSA within 30 days from the date of notice of the change, unless the parties agree in writing to a longer period.

- (d) Failure to agree to any adjustment shall be resolved in accordance with the "Disputes" clause of this Order. However, nothing contained in this "Changes" clause shall relieve Seller from proceeding without delay in the performance of this Order as changed.

- (e) Equitable adjustment means an increase or decrease in the cost of performing this Order, plus an adjustment to profit thereon and excludes any incidental or consequential damages.

5. CONTRACT DIRECTION

- (a) All inquiries, including technical inquiries and correspondence regarding this Order, shall be directed to the attention of DSSA's Procurement Representative.

- (b) Only DSSA's Procurement Representative has authority to make changes in or amendments to this Order. Such changes or amendments must be in writing.

- (c) DSSA engineering and technical personnel may from time to time render assistance or give technical advice or discuss or effect an exchange of information with Seller's personnel concerning the work hereunder. Such actions shall not be deemed to be a change under the "Changes" clause of this Order and shall not be the basis for equitable adjustment. If at any time Seller believes that such an exchange of information requires a change or modification to this Order, it shall promptly so notify DSSA's Procurement Representative in writing.

- (d) Except as otherwise provided herein, all notices to be furnished by Seller shall be sent to DSSA's Procurement Representative.

6. DEFAULT

- (a) DSSA, by written notice to Seller, may terminate this Order for default, in whole or in part, if Seller fails to comply with any of the terms of this Order, fails to make progress so as to endanger performance of this Order, or fails to provide adequate assurance of future performance. Seller shall have ten (10) days (or such longer period as DSSA may authorize in writing) to cure any such failure after receipt of notice from DSSA; provided, however that a cure notice is not required in the event Seller fails to meet the delivery schedule.

- (b) DSSA shall not be liable for any work not accepted; however, DSSA may require Seller to deliver to DSSA any supplies and materials, manufacturing materials, and manufacturing drawings that Seller has specifically produced or acquired for the terminated portion of this Order. DSSA and Seller shall agree on the amount of payment for these other deliverables.

- (c) The rights and remedies of DSSA in this clause are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law, in equity, or under this Order.

- (d) Seller shall continue to perform all work not terminated.

- (e) If after a termination for default, it is later determined that Seller was not in default, Seller agrees that the termination shall be deemed to have been a Termination for Convenience and Seller's sole and exclusive remedy shall be determined pursuant to the Termination for Convenience Clause.

7. TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE

DSSA may terminate this order in whole or in part at any time and for any reason by notice to Seller in writing. On receipt by Seller of such notice, Seller shall to the extent specified therein, stop work hereunder; and stop the placement of subcontracts, terminate work under subcontracts outstanding hereunder, and take any necessary action to protect property in Seller's possession in which DSSA has or may acquire an interest. In such event, DSSA shall pay to Seller, without duplication:

- (a) the amounts due for supplies delivered and accepted or services completed in accordance herewith prior to the effective date of termination; plus
- (b) actual out-of-pocket costs incurred by Seller in performing the terminated portion of the contract, provided such costs are properly allocable or apportionable thereto under generally accepted accounting practices.

The remedies provided herein to Seller for such a termination are the exclusive remedies of the Seller. If this Order has been placed under an MPA, the damages to which Seller shall be entitled under (b) above shall be limited to those raw materials and component parts Seller has ordered within twelve weeks prior to the date of termination, including 4-weeks finished goods, 4-weeks work-in-process, and 4-weeks raw materials, combined.

8. FURNISHED PROPERTY

- (c) Except for reasonable wear and tear, Seller shall be responsible for, and shall promptly notify DSSA of, any loss or damage to Furnished Property. Without additional charge, Seller shall manage, maintain, and preserve Furnished Property in accordance with terms set forth elsewhere in this order, or absent such terms, good commercial practice.

Prior to Seller's acceptance of this Order, it shall furnish to DSSA's Procurement Representative a copy of OSHA Form 20 or 174, Material Safety Data Sheet. If for any reason beyond Seller's control, the MSDS/SDS has not been furnished prior to award it shall be furnished promptly after acceptance of this Order. In addition to application of proper shipping labels on the outside container, each container of Hazardous Materials shall be marked with the appropriate precautionary label according to the Code of Federal Regulations. Any failure to comply with the above submission requirement shall be grounds for withholding payments due Seller hereunder or terminating this order for default.

12. ENVIRONMENTAL, OCCUPATIONAL, HEALTH, AND SAFETY PROTECTION PLANS

By accepting this Order, Seller hereby warrants to DSSA that (a) all materials and/or products supplied to DSSA hereunder, and (b) all manufacturing and producing phases utilized by Seller in the production, and/or assembly of the supplies and/or services rendered and/or to be delivered to DSSA hereunder, are in compliance with all local, state, and federal environmental protection and occupational, health and safety laws and regulations, including without limitation laws and regulations pertaining to electrical, electromagnetic devices, and process safety requirements. No approval of Seller's facilities and/or production methods by DSSA shall in any way nullify or modify the obligation of Seller to comply with all local, state, and federal environmental protection and occupational, health and safety laws and regulations, including without limitation laws and regulations pertaining to electrical, electromagnetic devices and process safety management.

13. INVOICES AND PAYMENT

Seller shall prepare at time of shipment an invoice for the work performed. Payment terms shall be net 30 days from receipt of Seller's invoice, unless otherwise stipulated by DSSA. Seller shall be paid the price stipulated herein for supplies delivered and accepted, less applicable deductions if any. For purposes of invoice payment, the effective date of the invoice shall be construed to be the date of receipt of goods at DSSA (or such other destination as designated in the Order), or the date of receipt by DSSA of Seller's correct invoice, whichever occurs later. For purposes of taking any prompt payment discount, payment is deemed to be made on the date DSSA mails payment, first class postage pre-paid, to Seller. DSSA may at its option, make payment to Seller prior to the delivery and/or acceptance of supplies and/or services.

- (e) Inspections and/or tests by DSSA shall not relieve Seller of responsibility for defects or other failures to meet the requirements of this Order.
- (f) Acceptance by DSSA shall not be final if DSSA notifies Seller that it is accepting the goods under a reservation of rights, both parties recognizing that it may not be practicable for DSSA to reject an entire shipment containing defective supplies. Any such reservation of rights is at the sole discretion of DSSA. Acceptance also will not be final with respect to any supplies containing latent defects, accepted as a result of fraud or gross mistakes amounting to fraud, or as otherwise expressly provided in this Order.

16. LIQUIDATED DAMAGES AND DSSA CUSTOMER ASSESSMENTS FOR DEFECTIVE GOODS.

DSSA reserves the right to assess Seller as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, the sum of $1,000 on each lot of supplies for which DSSA has issued one or more Discrepancy Reports detailing a validated deficiency in one or more of the supplies delivered, which sum is intended to compensate DSSA for the cost of investigating and reporting on the deficiency. In the event goods shipped by DSSA are found to be defective by an DSSA Customer, DSSA shall have the right either to revoke acceptance of the defective supplies and the lot in which the supplies were shipped or in the alternative charge back to Seller any assessment charged to DSSA by its Customer. DSSA shall respond to Seller's claim within 60 days following receipt unless DSSA determines that additional time is necessary and notifies Seller when a decision shall be made.

(b) If DSSA, at its sole discretion, is potentially liable for any claim asserted by Seller, Seller agrees that it will participate in any form of binding or non-binding alternative dispute resolution provided it has the same rights as DSSA in the selection of the mediator, arbitrator or other hearing official(s)

25. INDEMNIFICATION

(a) Seller shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless DSSA against any and all damages, claims, liabilities and expenses (including attorneys' fees) arising out of or resulting in any way from any defect in the goods or services purchased hereunder, or from any act or omission of Seller, its agents, employees or subcontractors in connection with this Order. This indemnification provision shall be in addition to the warranty obligations of Seller.

(b) In the event the Seller, its agents, and/or employees are required to perform this Order or any part thereof on the premises of DSSA (including any premises, under DSSA's control or responsibility), Seller agrees to save harmless and defend DSSA from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, debts, liabilities, judgments, costs, and attorneys' fees arising out of claims on account of, or in any manner predicated upon loss of, or damage to the property of, the injuries to, or the death of, any or all persons whatsoever (including employees of Seller), in any manner caused or contributed to by Seller, its agents or employees while in, upon, or about DSSA's premises and to indemnify and save DSSA harmless, from and on account of damages or liability of any kind which DSSA may suffer as a result of the acts of any of Seller's agents or employees in or about the area involved. DSSA reserves the right to participate in the defense of any such suit without relieving Seller of any obligation hereunder. Seller shall not employ, or engage, in the performance of the work any person unfit or unskilled in the work assigned to it. The foregoing obligations of Seller shall not apply to any such loss,

Notices to DSSA must be addressed by name to DSSA's Procurement Representative.

27. WAIVER

Any term or condition of this Order may be waived at any time by the party entitled to have the benefit thereof, but such waiver shall only be effective if in writing signed by such party, and a waiver on one occasion shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the same or any other type of breach or other failure to comply on a future occasion. No failure or delay by a party hereto in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power.

28. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this Order is held to be unenforceable:

(a) this Order shall be considered divisible, and

(b) such provision shall be deemed inoperative to the extent it is deemed unenforceable, and

(c) in all other respects this Order shall remain in full force and effect; provided, however, that if any such provision may be made enforceable by limitation thereof, then such provision shall be deemed to be so limited and shall be enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

30. REMEDIES

The remedies provided to DSSA, whether set forth herein or included in the clauses incorporated herein by reference, are cumulative and DSSA may invoke the rights under any one of the clauses incorporated herein even if such rights are in addition to or at variance with any provision set forth herein. All rights and remedies so provided to DSSA are in addition to any other rights or remedies available at law or in equity.

31. QUANTITIES

In the event this Order is placed under an MPA, the quantities on the front of this Order are not guaranteed quantities. Seller shall have no claim for damages or termination costs resulting from DSSA's failure to order the total quantities. This Order shall not be construed as a requirements contract unless either the MPA under which it was issued or the Order itself expressly states that it is for DSSA's requirements.

32. INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

Seller shall obtain and present evidence acceptable to DSSA of insurance coverage for the goods and/or services covered by this Order in amounts at least equal to the minimums described below. Such insurance shall provide that 1) no cancellation or material changes in the policies shall become effective, except should any of the above described policies be cancelled before the expiration date thereof, notice will be delivered to DSSA in accordance with the policy provisions, and that 2) DSSA shall be named as an additional insured on coverage's (a) thru (c) below. separate policy had been issued to each, but nothing herein shall operate to increase the insurer's liability as set forth elsewhere in this policy beyond the amount or amounts for which the insurer would be liable if there had been only one insured.

33. FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

(a) Prior to commencing work under this Order, Seller shall furnish such financial data and related information as may be required by DSSA to permit a determination of financial capability and responsibility under this Order.

(b) At no increase in Order price, during the process of work under this Order, Seller shall submit such interim financial data as may be requested by DSSA to determine continuing financial capability and responsibility.
